

Code of Conduct

1. Prague City University encourages a free and open exchange of ideas in a climate of mutual respect. Any action by a participant that infringes on another participant's right to use and enjoy Prague City University discussions is prohibited.
2. Participants agree not to harass other participants or display any false, defamatory, abusive, obscene, threatening, racially offensive, sexually explicit or illegal material on the service. Avatars or other images cannot contain nudity or violence.
3. Absolutely no personal attacks will be tolerated.
4. Prague City University reserves the right to edit, remove or delete any material deemed unacceptable under these guidelines and to limit or terminate service to participants who violate the terms of this agreement.
5. If you notice something offensive in the forums, please send an e-mail message to info@praguecityuniversity.cz.
6. Participation in Moodle discussions occurs in real time. Prague City University cannot and does not intend to screen messages in advance of their posting. However, if a message is posted that violates the policies listed here, Prague City University may remove that message in its sole discretion at any time.
7. Your ID and password are unique and not to be lent or given to any other person.
8. Any information collected for the registration process is used solely by Prague City University to create your account in the course management system. Required information is a valid email address. No information will ever be shared with a third party.
9. If you do not agree to abide by these simple rules, logoff the Prague City University course management site now.
